Data Protection Information

In the context of the research project with the above-mentioned title, personal data will be processed, i.e., in particular collected, evaluated, and stored. The project participants commit to complying with data protection regulations.

You are not obliged to provide your personal data; however, participation in the above-mentioned study is not possible if you do not provide it.

1) Legal Basis
The legal basis for the processing of personal data is your voluntary electronic explicit consent in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (Art. 6 para. 1 sentence 1 letter a) GDPR).

2) Explanation of Terms
"Study" refers to the scientific investigation described in the participation information with the above-mentioned title. "Completion of the investigation" refers to the time when your data has been completely collected. "Completion of the study" refers to the time when the data of all persons participating in the study have been completely collected.

3) Types of Data
The following data will be collected:
a) data collected during the investigation (e.g., answers in the questionnaire, test and measurement results) as presented in the participation information.

4) Purpose
The data collected during the investigation serves the research purposes mentioned in the participation information. This data (paragraph 3a) can be further processed in an anonymized form for other purposes (see paragraph 6).

5) Type of Storage
Technical and organizational protective measures ensure that the data according to paragraph 3a is protected from access by third parties.

6) Access, Anonymization
The persons directly involved in the project have access to all data according to paragraph 3. These persons are named as "project participants" in the participation information. Access serves exclusively the purposes mentioned in paragraph 4. The project participants are obligated to maintain confidentiality towards third parties. The data is collected anonymously, meaning no personally identifiable data is recorded. Therefore, the collected data (paragraph 3a) can never be assigned to your person.

The data collected in the study (paragraph 3a) can be made accessible to the public in this anonymized form. All data can be made available to the Data Protection Officer of TU Chemnitz and the competent supervisory authorities upon request for auditing purposes.

7) Deletion of Data

If you end your participation during the investigation on your own request, you can independently delete the data collected up to that point. Deletion is no longer possible after the investigation, as the data cannot be assigned to your person either by you or by the project participants due to anonymization (paragraph 6).

8) Data Retention

All data will be retained in accordance with the deadlines set by law, regulations of professional societies, or regulations of publication bodies (e.g., professional journals). The retention period is currently generally 10 years from the completion of the study. The persons responsible for the retention of this data are:
Florian Grabs, E-Mail: florian.grabs@s2018.tu-chemnitz.de
Belinda Schantong, E-Mail: belinda.schantong@informatik.tu-chemnitz.de
Janet Siegmund, E-Mail: janet.siegmund@informatik.tu-chemnitz.de

9) Name and Contact Details of the Project Management

This privacy policy is an outdated version, last modified on 10.06.2024.

CONSENT TO DATA PROCESSING

I hereby declare that I have been fully informed about the handling of my data, in particular about the collection, evaluation, storage, and publication, as well as the possibilities for deleting my data. I have read and understood the data protection information. All my questions have been answered to my satisfaction. I have received a copy of the data protection information and the data protection consent form. I had enough time to consider my decision regarding the handling of my data and to make it freely. I am aware that I can withdraw my consent with effect for the future at any time until the completion of the investigation without stating reasons, and without any disadvantage resulting for me. I expressly and voluntarily, i.e., free from coercion and pressure, agree that my personal data will be processed to the described extent and for the described purposes. Note: The consent is given by clicking a corresponding button.
